Biographical Sketch

I completed my graduation in English Honours from St. Xavier's College, Kolkata in 2012. I moved on to Jadavpur University and completed my post-graduation in English in 2014. I enrolled as a JRF scholar at Jadavpur University in 2015. Currently, I am engaged as a Ph.D research fellow at Jadavpur University, Department of English.

Areas of Specialisation and Research

I am working in the area of memory studies under the supervision of Dr. Sutanuka Ghosh and my thesis is focussed on the works of women authors writing in the context of the genocide in Bangladesh in 1971.

And the areas of interest include Renaissance drama, Victorian women's literature, Partition narratives and Life histories.

Teaching Experience

I have worked as a guest lecturer at the Department of English, Shri Shikshayatan College, Kolkata for a period of 6 months. I have taken on assignments as a teaching assistant at Jadavpur University as part of my fellowship programme. I am also associated with St. Xavier's College and I have been working as a part-time lecturer in Business Communication, B.Com evening department since February, 2018.
