

St. Xavier's University, Kolkata

Faculty Orientation Program on Conducting Online Class

JOINTLY ORGANIZED BY IT CELL AND IQAC

A faculty orientation program on conducting online class was initiated by IT cell and IQAC on 20th July 2020 from 2.15PM onwards. Welcome address given by Rev. Fr. Dr. Felix Raj , Vice chancellor of SXUK. He said "we will start our academic classes from 22nd July which is completely online mode." With the Xavarian spirit university has conducted classes and regularly connected with the students. Now university is waiting for the UGC guidelines for publishing results. He express his thanks and blessings to all faculties and the team members of IQAC to conduct this kind of training. The Registrar of the University, Prof. Ashis Mitra addressed the audience and detailed on the technical requirements of the online mode of teaching-learning practice and various policies taken to comply with the current situation. Fr Dr. Mourlin K. introduced two online platforms of Microsoft team and Google Meet to the audience. Dr. Tuhin Utsab Paul conducted a detailed session on the working of online class through Google Classroom and Meet with PPT demonstration. Fr Dr. Mourlin K. further detailed on the various tools effective in online teaching and also the planning of online classes. Mr. Malay Mitra detailed on the bandwidth requirement for the online classes taken in university. Dr. Tanushree Biswas, the IQAC Co-ordinator emphasised on the documentation of all the online classes and the rest of the reports made as and when required. Dr. Indra Kanta Maitra, the Controller of Examinations of the university detailed on the continuous evaluation process and the regular feedback from the students. The session ended with the questions from the participants. Positive feedback of the session received in the feedback session was very encouraging.